Talk Title: "Getting to a "YES!" Consciousness"

"Realizing the first step to being, having, doing anything is to say "YES!" to the Universe. God always says "YES!" and we have to get into a "YES!" consciousness to receive all that awaits our willingness, our recognition and our receptivity. It is God that we want and when we want It consciously and unequivocally, all the rest is added abundantly." – Rev. Dr. Roxie Hart

This week's Spirit Chant:

Spirit hear me, I'm saying YES
To my essence, my loving giving-ness
In my power, my truth, and my love

3. "Children of the World" was written for Rev. Dr. Roxie's Talk at Shiloh 4-5-09 & 11-8-09

Talk Title: "Spiritual Renaissance"

"Building a spiritual awareness and maturity that our inner world is reality, not the outer physical world that we think we're interacting with. We begin to see that we have been interpreting the world through our senses and then responding to the meaning and value that we have given it. Then we have forgotten that we assigned the meaning and value. We can remember that it is our consciousness that creates our reality--not the physical world. Ancient wisdom has said this, science is now providing evidence that this is true, scientists are becoming spiritual and languaging this Truth in ways that are relevant and meaningful in the secular world. This may be a tough one for song/rhyming and concepts.» – Rev. Dr. Roxie Hart

This week's Spirit Chant:

*Spirit bless me with this Renaissance
My inner world is the playground for my wants
It's my reality, from inner all things come
Quantum Physics, Ancient Wisdom, the marriage has begun. . .*

"Children of the World" by Mama Christy

VERSE 1

Spirit see me, with the eyes of a child
Open hearted, in the now all the while
The world's our oyster, we are all its pearls
Let's be playful and enjoy it -- We are children of the world!

CHORUS

Children of the world (4 x)

VERSE 2:

Remember seeing, with the eyes of a child
It's so easy, so much love, all the time
It is our consciousness creating what is real
We're the captain of our life ship, we direct our sacred keel

CHORUS

BRIDGE

Now is the time we open up our hearts and minds
Now is the time we see our power is deep inside
Now is the time we turn inside and align ourselves
Now is the time we see that everything is in here
Everything is in here (3 X)

VERSE 3:

The world around us seems so real, it is true
We interpret what we see, then we feel
It's an illusion that we're living from outside,
We're creating from our inside, it's our playground, yours and mine. . . .

FINAL CHORUS (2x)

Let's be playful and enjoy it -- We are children of the world! (2x)

Our body, our affairs and our world responds to our thoughts and feelings that drive them. We have the Power, we can take control, we can bring ourselves into conscious communion with God. The Mind of God waits for our recognition. The Power of God waits for our direction.» – Rev. Dr. Roxie Hart
